Marti Chick-Ebey motioned to approve the slate of nominees. John Guglielmino seconded the motion. The SVHC General Membership attendees were all in favor of accepting the slate of nominees to join the SVHC Governing Board with no noted objections. The Planning Council will host an orientation for the new members to provide an overview of the CoC and the roles and responsibilities of the Governing Board.

Governing Board Report

SVHC Strategic Planning Update: Marti Chick-Ebey reviewed the values, guiding principles, and priorities that were identified from the SVHC Strategic Planning Retreat. On Friday, July 8, the River District Consulting Group conducted a follow up session with some Governing Board members and The Planning Council staff to begin developing action steps around the main strategies that came from the May retreat. Later in July, the consultants will submit the Draft Action Plan to SVHC to further review and offer comments on the ideas shared.

RoundTable Updates

- The Planning Council is working to finalize the SVHC Annual Report. If agencies have client or program success stories they would like to highlight, they can send them to Julie Dixon for consideration.

Next Meeting – Next Meeting on September 14th, 2022, at 12:30 p.m. Virtual
